thank you for your note. i will wait to hear on wednesday when you (b)(3) CIAAct and [redacted] are available to review the second half of the (b)(6) manuscript in the same manner we did the first.

as far as the first half of the manuscript, there were quite a few areas that you said you would "push back" and revisit. i trust you are working on those sections now.

thank you, valerie (b)(3) CIAAct

Hello,

Thanks for the info below. I don't have any firm news yet we are still coordinating our response regarding the second half of the manuscript. I hope to have more to tell you on Wednesday when you get back. I will have a note waiting for you one way or the other.

Regarding the first half of the manuscript, we are hesitant to provide detailed additional input until we have received your rewrite and can review it as to [redacted] etc. The feedback we provide will be dependent on your new material and where it is placed in the manuscript. We would prefer to see what you have before a detailed line-by-line review.

[redacted] - [redacted] I will continue to work on that so that you have some sense of appropriateness and where to spend your effort (b)(3) CIAAct

Have a safe journey, [redacted] (b)(6) greetings.

i will wait to hear from you today on our date to begin reviewing the second part of the manuscript. just so you know, i will be traveling tuesday (tomorrow), back on wednesday morning.
